Call For Applicants To Doctoral Course

Open to applicants who have been awarded (or who will be awarded by April 2027) a Master's or equivalent degree and who have been residing abroad for at least six months.

Applications will be evaluated in two stages: first, a preliminary screening based on written documents, and second, for those who pass the first screening, an online interview to be held on Saturday, November 21, 2026.

Outstanding applicants will be eligible for a tuition waiver and other benefits under the UOsaka Humanities Outstanding International Student Award.
